1. Prep ingredients

Preheat broiler with a rack in the center. Peel and grate 2½ teaspoons garlic. Trim ends from cucumbers, halve lengthwise, then thinly slice crosswise into half moons. Thinly slice romaine crosswise, discarding ends.

2. Marinate cucumbers

In a large bowl whisk 2 tablespoons vinegar and ¼ cup oil; season to taste with salt and pepper. Add cucumbers to dressing and toss to coat.

3. Season beef & make sauce

In a medium bowl, combine ground beef, 2 teaspoons of the grated garlic, 1 teaspoon salt, and a few grinds pepper, and mix together. In a small bowl, combine sour cream, remaining garlic, and 2 tablespoons water, stir to combine; season to taste with salt and pepper.

4. Cook gyro patty

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a large skillet over medium-high. Place beef in skillet and smash flat with a spatula, forming a large 8-9 inch patty. Cook on one side, undisturbed, until outer edges are browned and crispy, about 5 minutes. Flip (it's OK if it breaks) and continue cooking until cooked through, about 1 minute. Transfer to a cutting board.

5. Finish & serve

Place pitas directly on center oven rack and toast until soft, about 1 minute per side (watch closely). Add romaine to bowl with cucumbers and toss to coat. Cut gyro patty into ½-inch strips. Divide beef between pitas, drizzle with garlic sauce, and top with some of the salad. Serve remaining salad alongside. Enjoy!

6. Spice it up!

With all of the cooling ingredients piled high—cucumbers, romaine, sour cream—these gyros could use a little heat! Shake on some of your favorite hot sauce if you like a little spice.
