Peruvian Beef Steaks

with Spinach, Quinoa and Tomato

20-30min

2 Portions

If minimum effort for maximum flavour sounds like a winning formula, here's your dish. The beef steaks cook in a literal flash, while the salad is as easy as boiling quinoa, whipping up a lemon dressing, chopping tomatoes then tossing everything together in a bowl with baby spinach leaves. Simple!

1. Prepare ingredients

Crush or finely chop the garlic. Finely chop the parsley leaves and stems. Finely grate the zest of half the lemon, then juice the half (the remaining lemon won't be used in this dish).

2. Cook quinoa

Bring a small saucepan of water to the boil for the quinoa. Put the quinoa in a sieve, rinse well then drain (see cooking tip). Add the quinoa to the pan, return to the boil and cook for 12 mins or until tender. Drain then set aside.

3. Marinate beef

Combine the lemon zest, half the parsley, garlic, 2 tsp olive oil, 2 tsp ground cumin (the remaining cumin won't be used in this dish) and salt and pepper in a dish. Add the steaks and rub all over with the mixture, then set aside.

4. Start salad

Put 1 tbs lemon juice, 1 tbs olive oil, 1 tsp honey and salt and pepper in a large bowl and whisk to combine. Finely chop the tomato then add to the dressing.

5. Cook beef

Heat a large frypan over high heat until hot. Reduce the heat to medium-high and cook the steaks for 3-4 mins each side for medium-rare or until cooked to your liking. Transfer to a plate and rest for 4 mins.

6. Get ready to serve

Add the spinach, quinoa and remaining parsley to the dressing. Toss to combine. Divide the quinoa salad and steaks among plates. Drizzle with any resting juices to serve.
